Christopher Kelly, Esquire

Attorney & Counselor at Law
EMS Consultants, Ltd.

Christopher Kelly Vice-President of Legal Services is a member of our team. Chris is an attorney licensed to practice in federal court who specializes in the ambulance industry. Chris has successfully represented many ambulance services in Medicare and other EMS related issues. The addition of Chris brings us the legal expertise and the opportunity to expand services to our clients.

Douglas Wolfberg

Attorney at Law
Page, Wolfberg & Wirth

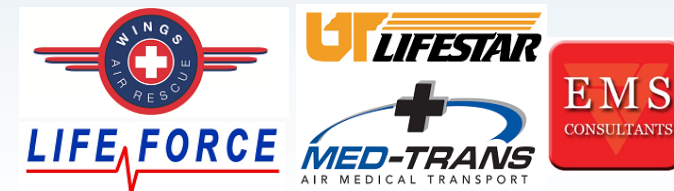

Doug Wolfberg is a founding partner of Page, Wolfberg & Wirth, and one of the best known EMS attorneys and consultants in the United States. Doug answered his first ambulance call in 1978 and has been involved in EMS ever since. After earning his undergraduate degree in Health Planning and Administration from the Pennsylvania State University in 1987, Doug went to work as a county EMS director. He then became the director of a three-county regional EMS agency based in Williamsport, Pennsylvania. He then moved on to work for several years on the staff of the state EMS council. In 1993, Doug went to the nation’s capital to work at the United States Department of Health and Human Services, where he worked on federal EMS and trauma care issues. Doug left HHS to attend law school, and in 1996 graduated magna cum laude from the Widener University School of Law. After practicing for several years as a litigator and healthcare attorney in a large Philadelphia-based law firm, Doug co-founded PWW in 2000 along with Steve Wirth and the late James O. Page.
