Payment

Registrations are a two-step process:

1. Complete and submit the registration form. The GFSI Conference Registration Team will then review and validate this.
2. Upon receipt of the validation email, please finalise the registration and proceed to payment.

The registration fee must be paid in Euros to The Consumer Goods Forum.

Bank transfer payments will be accepted until 3 March 2026. After this date, only credit card payments will be permitted.

For group registrations, please contact us directly at tcgffoodsafety@theconsumergoodsforum.com.

To attend the event, full payment must be made before the event begins. Alternatively, delegates must present proof of payment upon arrival. Without prior payment or valid proof, the organiser cannot guarantee entry. Please note that on-site payments will not be accepted.

Cancellation Policy

For cancellations received in writing by the GFSI Conference Registrations Team:

- Before 6th February 2026: The full registration fees will be refunded.
- Between 7th February 2026 and 20th February 2026: 50% of the paid registration fees will be refunded.
- As of 21st February 2026: No refund will be possible. 100 % registration fee will be retained.

The substitution of a colleague from the same organisation is possible at no extra cost, provided a written request is submitted to the GFSI Conference Registrations Team.

The above cancellation fees will apply to all registrations once received, regardless of payment status.

Data Processing

The information requested in this form is necessary to process your registration for the event.

Evenium directly manages this ticketing and registration service. If you create an account on Evenium or on any other third-party networking tools during the event, your data will be processed in accordance with such third parties' privacy policies.

Some of your personal data (name, company name, position, e-mail) collected in this registration form by Evenium will be transmitted to The Consumer Goods Forum (including its authorised subcontractors ) for the purposes of processing your registration to the GFSI Conference 2026, organising the GFSI Conference 2026, sending you documents, materials and/or information in connection with such event and/or informing you on similar events organised by us.

To organise the official lunches and cocktails, you may wish to provide information on your dietary restrictions. This information might be sensitive and remains optional. You expressly agree to share this information with The Consumer Goods Forum and its partners/sponsors solely for this purpose. This information will no longer be available to our sponsors after the event ends.

You have the right to access, modify or correct your personal data at any time. You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data and to ask for their deletion and/or to obtain copies of information we hold about you in electronic form. You can exercise these rights at any time by sending an email to mydata@theconsumergoodsforum.com accompanied by a valid proof of ID.

Your contact details will also be collected and shared with Failte Ireland for the purposes of verifying attendance.

For more information on how and why we process your data, please refer to our Privacy Statement
